

367 BC

Returned to office the tenth time the tribunes SEXTUS and LICINIUS obtained the enactment of a law requiring that half the board of 10 who had charge of sacred rites should be plebeians. Having elected 5 patricians and 5 plebeians, the people felt that they had set a precedent for consulship.

After desperate struggles the senate and dictator were beaten and measures advocated by the tribunes were adopted.

367BC

Practors

A new office was created for patricians, they were to be the chief justices, with the same power in this respect as was formerly held by the Consuls. They had two assistants known as CURULE AEDILES (Chief of police) who were also selected from the patricians.

367 BC

MARCUS FUR~~IO~~S CAMILLUS
was dictator for 5th time
He was dictator 5 times. Captured the Veii, saved Rome from the Gauls (Brennus), defeated the AEQUI and VOLSCIAN, took PRAENESTE
and defeated Gauls at Alba Longa
He died 365? B.C.

367 BC

The Consulship restored. Two censor Aedile created.

367B C

DUMANI

Lex LICINIA alleviates law of debt

one of whom was to be a phibecian.

5) There should be ten keepers of the SIBYLLINE Books, five of whom were to be phibecian

367 BC

LICINIAN laws

- 1) Debtors were helped by having the interest which they had paid deducted from the principal.
- 2) Public land was opened to all, and no one could hold more than a certain specified amount.
- 3) Office of MILITARY TRIBUNE was abolished
- 4) Two Consuls were again elected annually